From the GEORGIA GAZETTE, May 26.

Mr. PRINTER,

THE late Rev. Mr. Whitefield, in his Letter to the late Archbiſhop of Canterbury, hath theſe remarkable Words: "I beg Leave to obſerve, that by far the greateſt Part of the ORPHAN-HOUSE Collections came from Diſſenters:—That in moſt of the Places he viſited, he ſolemnly declared from the Pulpit, the COLLEGE ſhould be upon a broad Bottom, and no other:—How can I, ſaith he, anſwer it to God, my King, my Country, my Conſtituents, and Orphan-Houſe Benefactors, to betray my TRUST, forfeit my Word, act greatly contrary to my own Convictions,—by narrowing its Foundation, and letting it fall upon a Bottom which will give univerſal Diſguſt, and moſt juſtly open the Mouths of Perſons of all Denominations againſt me."

How far this plan is now followed, let the following Fact declare: A Diſſenter deſired to be buried at Bethelda near her Huſband, whereupon her Miniſter made a reſpectful Application in the Abſence of the Preſident to the Chaplain and Tutor, the Rev. Mr. Eccles, who very politely granted it, and ſaid Mr. Piercy could or would have no Objections againſt it, but ſince wrote the following Letter:

Reverend Sir,

SINCE I had the Pleaſure of ſeeing you, I acquainted Mr. Piercy of your's, and Mrs. Wright's Deſire. He is very ſorry he cannot comply with it, as he is certain it would be contrary to Lady Huntingdon's Intention. You are not unacquainted of the College being eſtabliſhed on the Church of England Plan; therefore, upon more mature Conſideration, you will ſee the Propriety of Mr. Piercy's Reſolution of not permitting a Diſſenter to bury or perform any ceremonial Ordinance.

Mr. Piercy will attend at the Funeral himſelf, if it ſhould pleaſe God to call Mrs. Wright, and will take Care to have a Grave made.

Monday Evening, May 24, 1773. } I am, SIR, &c.

Mr. PRINTER, I ſhall make no Comment on the Fact, but hope it can give no juſt Offence to acquaint Diſſenters with the preſent Plan, which I and many others hitherto underſtood very different.

I would wiſh well to all as far as they may promote the Cauſe of Religion in general, but do not believe that it is promoted by making new Sects and Parties. I am,
AN INDEPENDENT MINISTER.
My Name no Secret.

Mr. POWELL,

Your inſerting the following Lines in your next Gazette, will much oblige, Yours, &c. A CONSTANT READER.

On SNUFF.

OH! thou for whom theſe Numbers are deſign'd,
Be ever preſent to my lab'ring Mind;
Still may I think on thy ſevere Command,
T' inſpire my tardy Wit, and urge my backward Hand;
So ſhall thy Smiles as real Strength infuſe,
As ever Bard receiv'd from Goddeſs Muſe;
My Taſk perform'd, with grateful Joy I'll own,
That ev'ry ſingle Joy proceeds from Thee alone.
The Snuff-Box firſt provokes our juſt Diſdain,
That Rival of the Fan, and of the Cane.
Your modern Beaux to richeſt Shrines entruſt,
Their worthleſs Stores of faſhionable Duſt,
Or wrought or plain the clouded Shell behold,
The poliſh'd Silver or the burniſh'd Gold.
While diſtant Climes, their various Arts employ,
T' adorn and to complete the modiſh Toy;
Some with Home-made Lids, their Fancies pleaſe,
And bear engraſs'd their own dear Images;
True to themſelves, they need no foreign Face,
Nature divine can human Art ſurpaſs,
And each Italian Paint muſt yield t' Looking Glaſs.
The lovely Hand is now no longer bare,
The rumpled Neckcloth to compoſe with Care;
To fix a falling Patch, or ſmooth a ruffled Hair;
The never failing Snuff Box ready ſtands.
To ſhow the well turn'd Joints and Lilly Hands,
Arm'd at all Points, with this the Beau can move,
Envy in Men, and in the Females Love;
Againſt this Foil, the Fair have no Defence,
'Tis Humour, Breeding, Wit, and Eloquence;
A kind Employ the Snuff Box can afford,
To Youths that ſcorn the Pen and fear the Sword;
This will cut Nails far plac'd in open Day;
And wanton on this Lid the taper Fingers play;
Circled with Gold the brilliant Diamond glows,
So fond the Fop its Luſtre to expoſe,
That like an Indian King he'll wear it at his Noſe.
The radiant Box of treaſur'd Duſt is full,
And richly furniſh'd like its Owner's Skull;
A thouſand Shapes the Virgin' Weed diſguiſe,
Veil'd in a thouſand Shapes the Weed they prize;
Of barb'rous Names who can recount the Train,
The ſcented Bergamot and Spaniſh Plain,
With what Diſdain, the Belles wou'd glance aſkew,
Were Leaf not Powder proffer'd to their View,
Tho' ſtill the Thing's the ſame, the Title new;
For Fav'rite Snuff, diſguiſe it as you will,
In Spite of Art, remains Tobacco ſtill,
Strange is the Pow'r of Snuff, whoſe pungent Grains,
Can make Fops ſpeak and furniſh Beaux with Brains;
Nay, can inchant the Fair to ſuch Degree,
Scarce more ador'd could French Romances be,
Scarce Scandal more belov'd or darling Flattery;
Nay further yet, perhaps their Snuff they keep,
Take it in Bed, and dream on't when aſleep.
For ſure unleſs the Beau may claim a Part,
Snuff is the topmoſt Trifle of the Heart;
Nor Care of Cleanlineſs, nor Love of Dreſs,
Can ſave their Cloaths from Brick duſt Naſtineſs.
Let Work employ the Poor, Snuff the Genteel,
Your well-bred Spinſters ſcorn the Spining Wheel,
Let coop'd up Seamſtreſſes, their Fingers ply,
And cloiſter'd Nuns drudge at Embroidery;
Fatigue for Belles too great, who wou'd as ſoon,
As deign to play the Seamſtreſs, play the Nun.
Some think the Part too ſmall of modiſh Sand,
Which at a niggard Pinch they can command;
Nor can their Fingers for that Taſk ſuffice,
Their Noſe too greedy, not their Hand too nice;
To ſuch a Height with theſe is Faſhion grown,
They feed their very Noſtrils with a Spoon.
One Thing and but one Degree is wanting yet,
To make their ſenſeleſs Luxury complete;
Some choice Regale, uſeleſs as Snuff, and dear,
Which ſhall in future Times perchance appear,
To feed the merry Windings of the Ear.

May 6, 1773. JAMES FRASER.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 21.

THE dry Weather, Grashoppers and Bugs, have so effectually contributed to injure this Year's Crop of Indico, that it is believed, not one Half will be made of the Quantity that was planted.—Several Planters have already given it up, and plown their ravaged Fields in Indian Corn—which Grain, though there is now a great Scarcity, is still kept up at the Price of 25s. per Bushel.

There is now here, shipped on board the Queen Charlotte, Capt. Rose, for London, one Hogshead of Rum, esteemed equal to the best Jamaica, and two Casks of Sugar, containing about 1000lb. made on the Plantation of —— Rose, Esq; on the Musquito-River in East-Florida, who, we are informed, has now, of the second Year's Growth, 70 Acres of as fine Sugar Canes as ever were seen in the West India Islands.

The stealing of Boats and Canoes, is now become so common, that unless some Punishment is inflicted by Law, similar to that to which Horse-Thieves are liable, this Evil will soon become a very great Grievance.

Yesterday se'nnight arrived here from Providence, the Hon. John Brown, Esq; President of His Majesty's Council there; and Yesterday the Hon. John Gambier, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor of the Bahama-Islands.

Last Tuesday embarked, in the Ship Mermaid, Capt. Ball, for London, Isaac Motte, Esq; and Son, Mrs. M'Queen, Mrs. Simmons (Widow of Ebenezer Simmons, Esq; and Son, Mr. John Neufville, jun. Mr. Joel Poinsett, the Rev. Mr. Eccles, of the Orphan-House Academy, &c.

Last Wednesday, sailed with the Mails for Great Britain, his Majesty's Packet-Boat Le Despencer, commanded by Capt. William Pond.

On Saturday last, Thomas Lynch Esq; and Family, and several others, embarked and sailed for New-York, to spend the Summer Season in the Northern Colonies.

The same Day, Mr. Andrew Hewatt was married to Mrs. Katharine Elliott, Widow of Joseph Elliott, Esq; and Mr. George Mullins, to Miss Sarah Cattell, Daughter of the late John Cattell, Esq; Son of John.

Last Saturday two Negro-Fellows were publicly flogged for Gaming.—If this Vice was more frequently punished in that Manner, there would be less Thieving by our Slaves, and the Receiving of Stolen Goods would not be so common.

Yesterday sailed with the Mails for Jamaica and Pensacola, the Comet Packet-Boat, commanded by Capt. Ter. McDonough.

Yesterday the Ship Friendship, William Maine Master, bound for Newberry in New-England, the Air being extremely thick and hazy, in attempting to go over the Bar, struck on the North-Breaker, beat over it, and then struck on No-Man's-Land, where she bulged, and is lost.

IN ORDER to "preserve to the Proprietors of such Grants, the equitable "Right they had to the Lands mentioned therein, I DID, "by the Advice of His Majesty's Council, issue my Pro-"clamation; THEREBY STRICTLY FORBIDDING all the "Deputy-Surveyors of this Province, from laying any Warrant "on Lands for which Grants had been obtained in North-"Carolina: AND notifying to all Persons possessed of, or in-"titled unto, such Grants, that they might have Grants for the "same from this Government, on their producing such Grants, "without their personal Attendance at Charles-Town, provided "Application was made for the same within Twelve Months from "the Date thereof," had not been sufficiently notified to the Persons for whose Benefit it was intended; and the Time therein mentioned, for them to come and take out Grants for those Lands, will be therefore too short: I THEREFORE, taking the same into Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby strictly forbidding all Deputy-Surveyors from laying any Warrants on the Land settled by Virtue of such Grants: AND FURTHER, notifying to all Persons possessed of, or intitled unto, such Grants or Conveyances, that the Time for their applying to have a Confirmation of the same, will be prolonged till the First Day of January next.

THOUGHTS upon ſeveral SUBJECTS.

IF you happen into company, where the talk runs into party, obſcenity, ſcandal, ſpilly, or vice of any kind, you had better paſs for moroſe or unſocial, among people whoſe good opinion is not worth having, than ſhock your own conſcience, by joining in converſation which you muſt diſapprove of.

If you would have a right account of things from the illiterate people, let them tell their ſtory in their own way. If you put them upon talking otherwiſe, you will confound them.

The ſcheme, in moſt diſputes, is to try who ſhall conquer, or confound the other. It is therefore no wonder that ſo little light is ſtruck out in converſation,—where a candid enquiry after truth is often the leaſt thing thought of.

Be prudently ſecret. But don't affect to make a ſecret of what all the world may know; nor give yourſelf airs of being as cloſe as a conſpirator. You will better diſappoint idle curioſity by ſeeming to have nothing to conceal.

Never blame a friend without joining ſome commendation to to make reproof go down.

It is by giving a looſe to folly, in converſation and action, that people expoſe themſelves to contempt and ridicule. And, indeed, it is only the raſh and impetuous talker, or actor, that effectually expoſes himſelf in company, or ruins himſelf in life.

It is a baſe temper in mankind, that they will not take the ſmalleſt ſlight at the hands of thoſe who have done them the greateſt kindneſs.

If you fall into the greateſt company, in a natural and unforced way, look upon yourſelf as one of them; but, if you ſee them diſpoſed to be rude, or over-bearing, it will be more decent, and leſs troubleſome, to retire, than to wrangle with them.

Never over-praiſe any abſent perſon; eſpecially Ladies in company with Ladies. It is the way to bring envy and hatred upon thoſe whom you wiſh well to.

It is better, in converſation with poſitive men, to turn off the ſubject in diſpute with merry conceit, than keep up the contention to the diſturbance of the company.

The beſt method of acquiring the accompliſhment of a graceful and eaſy manner of expreſſion, for the common occaſions of life, is attention, and imitation of well-bred people.

If you would be employed in ſerious buſineſs, don't ſet up for a buffoon.

Flattery is a compound of falſhood, ſelfiſhneſs, ſervility, and and ill manners. Who then would have any concern with him whoſe mind is deformed by four ſuch vices?

If you muſt ſpeak upon a difficult point, be the laſt ſpeaker, if you can.

You will not be agreeable to company, if you ſtrive to introduce, or keep up, a ſubject unſuitable to their capacities or humour.

You will never convince a man of ordinary ſenſe by overbearing his underſtanding. Shew ſome deference for his judgment, and your complaiſance may win him.

If you ſend people away from your company well-pleaſed with themſelves, you need not fear but they will be well enough pleaſed with you, whether they have received any inſtruction from you or not. Moſt people had rather be pleaſed than inſtructed.

Obſerve, after you have paſſed ſome time in the converſation of men of wiſdom and learning, if you do not find your mind filled with judicious reflections and worthy reſolutions. If you do not, it is becauſe you have not a mind capable of them.

Don't appear too eager upon any project; for, if it ſhould miſcarry, you will be laughed at.

For an intimate friend to improve by, you muſt ſearch half a country over, and be glad if you can find him at laſt.

Nothing can be more abſurd than the common way of fixing people's characters. Such a one has diſobliged me; therefore he is a villain. Such another has done me a kindneſs; therefore he is a good man.

Never contend about ſmall matters with ſuperiors, nor with inferiors. If you get the better of the firſt, you provoke their formidable reſentment: If you engage with the latter, you debaſe yourſelf.

If you act a part truly great, you may expect that men of mean ſpirits, who cannot reach you, will endeavour, by detraction, to pull you down to their level. But poſterity will do you juſtice; for the envy raiſed againſt you will die with you.

Superficial people are more agreeable, the firſt time you are in their company, than ever afterwards. Men of judgment improve every ſucceeding converſation. Beware, therefore, of judging by one interview.

You will not anger a man ſo much by ſhewing him that you hate him, as by expreſſing a contempt of him.

Moſt young Ladies had rather have any of their good qualities ſlighted, than their beauty: Yet that is the moſt inconſiderable accompliſhment of a woman of real merit.

You will be always reckoned by the world nearly of the ſame character with thoſe whoſe company you keep.

You will pleaſe ſo much the leſs, if you go into company determined to ſhine. Let your converſation appear to riſe out of thoughts ſuggeſted by the occaſion, not ſtrained, nor premeditated: Nature always pleaſes, affectation is always odious.

Lands, Houses, and Negroes,

Bought and sold at private Sale, upon the usual Commissions.

Money borrowed and lent at Interest,

Without Expence to the LENDER, who will be entitled to Interest for his Money, from the Day he gives Notice to him, of having it to LET; and, such as desire it, may have their Interest applied for as it becomes due, without any Expence.

For SALE privately,

The following Property of BENJAMIN GUERARD,

Which he is desirous of SELLING,

To have his Interest in one Place, viz.

A Very valuable Tract of 1000 Acres of Land, situate in Prince William's Parish, between Combahee and Port-Royal Ferries, having on it a Sufficiency of choice high Land for two profitable Indico Plantations; between which Two Hundred and Fifty Barrels of Rice may be made in a Year, as Ground to yield that Quantity of Barrels can be flowed with Water:—No Part of it was ever planted, but Sixty or Eighty Acres are cleared to begin one Plantation, FRESH and NEW, and therefore the BETTER and CHEAPER. It is esteemed as fine a Tract for its Size as most in the Province, the up Land being high, so that Land Floods can never hurt the Crops of Indico and Corn thereon planted:——The Purchaser, from the Red-Oak Trees that must unavoidably come down, in order to his making his Fields, may strip a vast Number of Cords of Bark.

So complete a Tract as this, and of the like Distance from Charles-Town, is very rarely to be found for sale; which would require no Recommendation, if a View by every one in Want of such could be taken of it, and which, considering the high Price of good Lands, will be sold cheap.——It pays no Quit-Rents, being Part of the Rich Lands included in Thomas Lowndes's Grant; and, as 'tis too late in the Season to prepare for Planting for the ensuing Crop, the Purchaser's Bond shall not carry Interest 'till Six Months from the Date are elapsed.

A delightful RETREAT,

Eight Miles by Land or Water from Town, known to be as well situated for Pleasantness and Agreeableness of Prospect as most Seats in the Province; on which, open to several Parts of that beautiful River, Ashley-River, stands an elegant House, with handsome commodious Offices.

With which will be SOLD,

The large Quantity of very genteel Furniture

Now in the said House.

A very easy and desirable Distance for a Carriage and Four or Six Horses, as a Gentleman may come to his Business in Town in the Morning, and return to his Family in the Evening.——The Inconvenience of not having such a Place for a Family, is at all Times great, and much more so, when contagious Disorders rage in the Metropolis, or those few Months in the Year arrive, so destructive to Infants kept in Town.

It contains Three Hundred Acres of Land, and is allowed to have the best Pasture in the Neighbourhood (having kept all the Cattle thereabouts in good Condition for several Years past) of which Two are now inclosed with a strong new Fence, as is also a Meadow for making Hay; has great Plenty of Fencing and Fire-Wood Trees, and, by a Gentleman having a Turn that Way, may be made a Place of some Profit as well as Pleasure, as good Crops of Corn have been made on it, and one Year, when planted with that Grain, Sixty Barrels of Rice; but what can be more Profitable to grow on it than the Grass it luxuriantly bears, as HAY (made with a very few Hands) is an Article of so great Demand in Town, and never sells for less than Ten Pounds per Thousand Weight, although often near One-Third Brambles.——It may be viewed at any Time.

His Two HOUSES in Town;

The one on the Corner of the Bay, near the Exchange, and the other adjoining, in Broad-Street, which (and that very low) rent for £. 960 per Annum, and are so advantageously situated for Trade, as will never be untenated;—besides which Advantage, it is well known these Houses were not built as those which are intended to be Lett, no Cost nor Pains being spared in getting the Materials the best of their Kind, which were put together in the most faithful and neat Manner:—The Wood Materials are of the best of Yellow Pine and Black Cypress, and the Mortar made of Fresh-Water River Gravel, so strong a Cement as that none of the Tiles in the Great Hurricane 1752, were blown off, whilst the Roofs of most of the Houses tiled or slated were entirely uncovered thereby.

It has been often desired that the Corner House should be made a COFFEE-HOUSE,—£. 1050 a Year Rent will be insured, but there is no Doubt that £. 1100 can be got for them, as the Rents were never increased since the Building of the Exchange, as should be.—The Terms to the Purchasers shall be made as convenient as they can desire.——Please to apply to
